HEART OF VIRGINIA
2011 REGIONAL MIDWINTER
EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

Key Club Kiwanis and School Advisors – This session is for Kiwanians and teachers who are or will be serving as Key Club Advisors. This session is also for Kiwanis-Kids and Builders Club advisors. The leader is Joe Stankus, Capital District Key Club Advisor

New Club Building – This session is for the Kiwanians who are interested in expanding the reach and influence of Kiwanis by building a new Kiwanis Club. Learn how you can move beyond traditional Kiwanis clubs to a club tailored to meet your community's needs. Carla Morin, New Club Building Chair

Youth Services and YCP1 - Where does youth service fit into the service area with Community Service and Young Children Priority 1? What are clubs doing in the area of Youth Services? Don Schroeder, Past Trustee

Key Leader -- This workshop will present an overview of a Key Leader weekend, address how Kiwanis Clubs can support this program and sponsor students to the two 2011 events in the Capital District this spring. Key Leader is Kiwanis's leadership education program, open to all high school students. Presenter: Nicole McDermott, Key Leader District Chair

Club Growth & Revitalization - All clubs know how important growth is in refreshing themselves. We'll answer "why do clubs not grow?" "Why members do not sponsor?" "Finding new members," and "learning habits of successful clubs." Come share your thoughts and experiences! John Tyner, TAG Coordinator

Regional Fund Raisers- Can the 21 Heart of Virginia clubs get together and raise money for Service Projects where everyone shares instead of all monies going to a common project? What could be done in this area that does not interfere with Club Fund Raisers? Lieutenant Governors and Regional Trustee

Builder's Clubs – Do you sponsor a Builder's Club in a Middle School? Are there schools in your clubs service area that should have a Builder's Club? This is the session for you. Matthew Mund is the new Builder's Club Chair and he will have fresh information on how you can have a Builder's club.

Strategic Planning –This session is a general discussion of Long range planning for your club. Do you know what service projects your club does? What activities do you have to raise funds for your community service? Do you support Service Leadership Programs in all the eligible schools in your area? These will be the topics discussed so will know what your club is doing and how you can do more. Governor Tom Varner.

Key Club Officer Training – Key clubs elect their officers in February. The Key Club Divisions will elect their Lieutenant Governors in March and the District Offices will be elected at the end of March. All new officers will take office on April 1, 2011. Help your clubs get a head start by sponsoring their attendance at the this session and the Midwinter. Capital District Key Club Board Members

Regional Service Projects – What does it take to get 21 Kiwanis Clubs to cooperate towards a common service project. What are projects that the Heart of Virginia can do with 21 Clubs that one Club or one Division may not be able to do? Lieutenant Governors and Regional Trustee

Kiwanis Kids – Dorothy Murray is our new and newly trained district chair for Kiwanis Kids. Kiwanis Kids has three programs – Kiwanis-Kids, Bring Up Grades (BUGS), and Terrific Kids. These organizations are an excellent way to become involved at the Elementary School Level.

Club Liability Insurance – What does the Kiwanis Insurance cover? Is your fundraiser with alcoholic beverages covered? District risk Manager Mike Rind will discuss these and the question of Club Officer and Director Insurance.
