SPRING FLING

Spring Fling is now only hours away. Hopefully by now everyone has sold all their tickets and have signed up to help work for a hour during the fling. If everyone volunteers just one hour almost nobody will have to pull double shifts. So if you haven't signed up please call Bob Bowers now. Let's all pitch in and make this a success.

THE WRAP UP PARTY

The after Spring Fling wrap up party will once again this year be held and the home of Rex and Billie Dykes. Their house is located at 5701 Sara Kay Drive. Take Salem Church Road (Off Route 145) pass the Salem School Complex and take your third turn left. It is the eighth house on the left.

So bring your swim suit, towels and Pizza Hut and Little Ceaser's coupons and get ready to have a great time.

CHARTER NIGHT - JUNE 3rd

The 21st Anniversary of the charter of the Chester Kiwanis Club will be celebrated at The Chesdin Restaurant on River Road in Matoaca on June the 2nd at 6:30 PM. We will be sending a sign up sheet around since we need an accurate count. Let's everyone bring their ladies and have a good time.

THANKS JOE

We all appreciate the great job that Joe Schott has done in chairing this year's Spring Fling. He has put in more hours of hard work than any of us can imagine. His persistence in making the Spring Fling a success is a credit to himself. While writing this newsletter I realized that even the day of Spring Fling falls on his and Carolyn's anniversary. So from the editor, a heartfelt thank you for your time, efforts and dedication to the Chester Kiwanis Club.

ROATARY-KIWANIS MEETING

Don't forget that on May 26th at 7:00 AM the Chester Rotary Club has invited the Kiwanis to their meeting at Allman's Bar-B-Que. Let's all get out and support the club at this meeting.

HAT'S OFF TO BOB GOODWIN

Special thanks to Bob Goodwin on the excellent job in keeping the median area west of town looking great. He has it looking like a golf course green.
