GOVERNOR TO VISIT CHESTER KIWANIS CLUB

On Wednesday June 14th the governor of the Capital District of Kiwanis will be visiting our club. Gov. David Espie will give us a brief presentation on the District and upcoming items that might be of an interest to us as we plan for the future. It has been awhile since our club has been honored by a visit from a sitting Capital District governor so let's all come out and hear what he has to say.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

June 14th - Governor Dave Espie's visit to the Chester Kiwanis Club

June 21st - Crewe Chicken Festival
Cook out at Bill Rhea's house

June 28th - Hill Phoenix corporate president. Hill Phoenix is a multimillion dollar company who recently relocated the company to Chester. Their president will tell us about their company and why they selected Chesterfield as the place for their company,

July 5th - Board Meeting

Thanks to Jim Ramsey for hosting the Spring Fling Wrap Up Party. Everyone had a wonderful time and really enjoyed the food, friendship and fun.

CHESTERFIELD KIWANIS
SELLING FIRE
EXTINGUISHERS

The Chesterfield Kiwanis Club is presently selling fire extinguishers both as a service project and to help raise money. The fire extinguishers are $12.00 apiece. If you are interested please give Joe Hillier a call. He is taking orders for the Chesterfield Club. The Chesterfield Club has helped us greatly in the past with buying spring fling tickets so let's help them now.

COOKOUT JUNE 21ST

While the Holiday Inn (Howard Johnson) undergoes redecoration on the 21st we will be having a cook out at President Bill's house. He lives at 11765 Dewberry in Chester. If you are not going to the Crewe Chicken Festival we look forward to seeing you at 6:30. Rumor has it that the Spud Gun will be there.

SPRING FLING -

$9,158.00 and counting

Thanks again to everyone
