OYSTER ROAST

A special thanks to those 16 or so Kiwanians that, undeterred by the weather, attempted to consume all the fried oysters Dayton Todd prepared. They fell woefully short! There were a number who consumed more than an average portion and a telephone call was made to alert their spouses! Throughout the wet feast, the dull thud of the spud cannon could be heard above the chatter and a quick eye was rewarded with the sight of a perfectly arching potato cresting the 50 foot pines, enroute to the elementary school grounds. Thanks to Bill Rhea for hosting the roast and to Chef Dayton for preparing the oysters. Good show!

KIWANIS EDUCATION

Harry Young, a charter member of the Kiwanis Club of Detroit #1, didn't like the name originally proposed for his club. "It seems to me," commented Young, "that Benevolent Order Brothers is a mighty peculiar name for an organization of businessmen. Who wants to be a BOB? Well, I don't for one."

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

How can one eat pancakes with oysters still seeking a resting place in the stomach? One must be a gastronomist to embark on such an adventure. To their credit, Lt. Gov Dave, President Bill, Joe Hillier, Dick Goyne, and Rick survived a double dose of the delicious fare offered by the Colonial Heights Kiwanis Club. The "cakes" sat uneasy atop the oysters and many subtle rumblings were heard during the Division Council meeting which followed. Lt Gov Dave conducted his first meeting which set the azimuth for Division 18 Clubs this year. Dave will provide solid leadership this year and we thank him for his commitment. Thanks to those who attended.

NOVEMBER BIRTHDAYS

Apologies to Pen Cathers for missing her birthday on the 6th. Also to Joan Jones (15th), Lisa Wyndham (25th), and Butch Amos (27th), all of whom I neglected to list in the last edition under November Birthdays and Anniversaries.
