August Board Notes

The Club wishes to thank Carol and Joe White for hosting the club social in July. Mary Jo and Rick Dodson were outstanding as chefs. Events like this will make going back to the Howard Johnson's even harder. (Check the Summer Schedule for specific dates.)

Buck Porter entertained us with a detailed description of his experience as a Delegate-Alternate at the Republican National Convention in Philadelphia. This was quite an honor to be chosen to represent our state and it is our privilege to have Buck in the club.

Parade chairman Steve Miles has submitted the application for the Annual Kiwanis Christmas Parade! Hard to believe it is time to get started already.

The club hopes to have Christmas Ornaments of the Chester Baptist Church this year. We continue to have problems with the vendor, and need to have an order placed by the end of the month.

The Eleanor Lee is sponsoring Gwen Osborne for club membership. Gwen has been a member of the community for over 30 years, and is just returning from an assignment in Atlanta with Wachovia. It is always great to have a new member, be sure to greet Gwen warmly at our next meeting.

Regretfully, the club has accepted the resignation of Julie Hamilton. Julie has been instrumental in the Children Priority One program and her presence will be missed.

The board has selected Bob Cassada, Steve Miles, and Eleanor Lee as delegates for the Capital District Convention to be held in Roanoke. Past Governor Joe Hillier will be presenting plans for redistricting at the convention, a topic that will be sure to ignite a spirited debate. Anyone wishing to attend the convention is encouraged to sign up quickly (see the Capital Builder for details.) If anyone wishes to enter the Ducky Derby, there is still time. $10 buys 3 chances, and helps support children's hospitals.

The club is supporting Rick Dodson in the Trigon Gurney Tourney. Rick is looking for volunteers to push (or pull) the winning gurney on Saturday September 23.

The Trigon Gurney Tourney will start after the parade at 10:30 a.m. More than 40 gurneys sponsored by area companies and community groups will race. The teams will maneuver their decorated gurneys through an obstacle course down Marshall Street in two-bed heats. The judges will award prizes for "Most Humorous Gurney," "Best Representation of a Sponsor" and "Most Original Gurney." All proceeds will go to the Hospital Hospitality House and the Medical College of Virginia Hospitals Auxiliary.
